Energy for the Future

LOAD MANAGEMENT SCHEDULE - FEBRUARY 2026

Possible load management for the month of February 2026. Please find your location in the groups below and refer to your load management schedule detailing the affected areas. Additional feeders on extreme groups will be managed in the event the situation demands so. It may not be necessary for load management to take place, should customers reduce their electricity consumption, especially during peak periods in the morning and afternoon.
